

5th Annual National Voices of Medicare Summit and Senator Jay Rockefeller Lecture

March 22, 2018

Kaiser Family Foundation
1330 G. Street, NW
Washington, DC

- Start the day with remarks from Tricia Neuman (VP, Kaiser Family Foundation)
- Participate in a conversation led by Sean Cavanaugh (Former CMS Medicare Director), with Nancy-Ann DeParle (Former CMS Administrator, Clinton Administration and lead Affordable Care architect, Obama Administration), Chris Jennings (Health policy expert and health policy leader, Clinton and Obama Administrations) and Kate McEvoy (Vice-President, National Association of State Medicaid Directors)
- Hear from a panel of experts about active responses to health care cuts, led by Max Richtman, (National Committee to Preserve Social Security & Medicare) with Ben Wikler (MoveOn), Khelan Bhatia (AARP), Ilene Stein (SEIU) and Topher Spiro (Center for American Progress)
- Listen to Senator Chris Murphy (D. CT) present the *Rockefeller Lecture with an introduction by Senator Rockefeller and a follow-up discussion and Q&A led by Judy Feder (Georgetown University/Urban Institute)
- Honor the 2nd annual Alfred J. Chiplin, Jr. Award recipient, Josephine Kalipeni (Director of Policy and Partnerships at Caring Across Generations) presented by Ben F. Belton (2017 Chiplin Awardee and Center for Medicare Advocacy Senior Chiplin Fellow)
- Laugh and Learn with a fast-paced Wait, Wait Don't Tell Me: Healthcare Hot Topics (With Center for Medicare Advocacy attorneys, Justice in Aging, Community Catalyst, Medicare Rights Center, and others)

You won't want to miss this energizing day!

Register at today: MedicareAdvocacy.org/Summit

Early Bird registration ends February 5, 2018